

Vice-President, Member of the Council of the Russian Banks Association
OLEG PREKSIN

Award No. 16, Decision of the Coordinating Council of the FBA EAC of June 29, 2021 No. 9/21

OLEG PREKSIN was born in Moscow on July 28, 1951. In 1973, he graduated from the Moscow Financial Institute (now the Financial Academy under the Government of the Russian Federation) with a degree in International Economic Relations. In Soviet times, he worked at the Vneshtorgbank of the USSR, the Council of Ministers of the USSR, was Deputy Chairman of the Board of Donau Bank in Vienna, a member of the Board of Directors. Since 1992 till 1996 he was Executive Director for the Russian Federation, the Republic of Belarus and Tajikistan at the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development in London (EBRD).

He worked in the government apparatus (in the State Foreign Economic Commission).

He was one of the organizers of the St. Petersburg International Economic Forum (SPIEF) and a member of its Organizing Committee of the first convocation.

Mr. Preksin was a member of the Working Group on the main areas of Integration at the Eurasian Economic Commission, as well as a number of specialized committees and commissions of the RSPP, President of the Fund for Support and Development of the Moscow Central Art School at the Russian Academy of Arts.

Vice President-Member of the Board of the Association of Russian Banks with extensive experience in financial and banking work in the public and private sectors in Russia and abroad.

Deputy Chairman of the Board of the Russian Financial and Banking Union, co-founder and CEO of NFA BRICS PAY.

Sherpa of the "Business Twenty" (B20) from 2012 to 2015, then a member of the B20 task force "Finance and Infrastructure", as well as the working group "Financial Services" of the BRICS Business Council.

Mr. Preksin has an academic degree and numerous publications on international monetary and credit relations and banking. He is a corresponding member of the Academy of Technological Sciences of the Russian Federation.

Oleg Preksin is a Member of the Management Board of the FBA EAC, Deputy Chairman of the Organizing Committee of the Moscow International Financial and Economic Forum and Deputy Editor-in-Chief of the Eurasian Financial and Economic Herald.